This Week's Dazzling Dotties!

The last celebration assembly of this half term and the teachers made some fabulous choices.

We heard about determined workers, fabulous homework projects, respectful listening to a visitor, care towards a child who had hurt themselves, fabulous writing and much, much more.

Well done to all of you, we are very proud of you.

What have we been up to...?

This week we come to the end of another half term! So much has happened this half term, from trips to Wales, to visits to Telford Town Park, and simply enjoying our own beautiful nature reserve. School has been busy with singing and cookery and art projects to name just a few activities! The lighter, brighter and hopefully warmer days are on their way, and we look forward to seeing you all after the half-term break on Monday 24th February where more exciting learning is already planned by our fantastic team of teaching staff.

Again, thank you for your continued support for this wonderful school. Mrs. Thomas Dothill Cup: Mrs. Renshaw's Year 2 class have won this week! She said: It's taken a while, but I really want to nominate my class this week. My nomination comes after a culmination of hard work and enthusiasm towards their collage art unit this half term. In these lessons the children have shown great focus, a calm nature, attention to detail, creativity, great concentration and lovely group work (when we did the printing aspect, and they had to take turns to use the rollers and wait patiently).

I have looked forward to our art lessons every week and they have produced some fabulous nature inspired collages. I really do think they deserve this.

Well done and well deserved – your artwork truly looks wonderful! 😊

Attendance

Wow! This week four classes have achieved 98% attendance - well done to Miss Dhariwal's Year 1 class, Mrs Gill's Year 1 class, Mrs Longland and Mrs Horsfall's Year 4 class and Miss Webb's Year 2 class. You have been in school living the Dohill values and learning lots of interesting facts and life skills.

Remember, being in school, on time, each day, is the best way to ensure your child makes good progress.
